

Ferry County PUD CETA Energy Assistance Application

Mail application to: PO Box 1039, Republic WA 99166
Or return in person to: 686 S Clark Ave, Republic WA

The account with Ferry County PUD must be in your name, and be your primary residence.

The customer's total household income, from all sources, shall be 80% or less than Area Median Income or 200% or less than current Federal Poverty Level Guidelines, adjusted for household size. Annual income is considered income from all sources, including wages, social security payments, interest, dividends, rents, welfare payments, child support, veteran's benefits, disability payments, retirement plans, pensions, or any other source. Proof of income is required for all household members.

The customer must have an excess electric energy burden of more than 6% of their income. Energy burden is calculated by dividing your annual cost of power by your annual income. We will calculate your energy burden using your annual PUD billing amounts.

Photo ID will be required for all household members 18 or older.
Verification of all children living in the household is required: social security card, photo ID, medical card, or birth certificate.
